The palette is a sophisticated study in shadow, featuring deep charcoals, midnight blues, and a flash of incandescent silver. Expect luxurious, structured wools and flowing silk crepe that create a dramatic contrast. Signature pieces include the exaggerated shoulder blazer and the bias-cut slip dress, all emphasizing a tailored yet relaxed silhouette

Made by _Bilal khan